

62.25

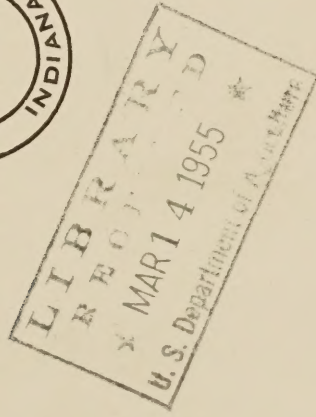

1953

Cunningham Gardens

INCORPORATED
WALDRON, INDIANA

BULK RATE
U. S. POSTAGE
PAID
Waldron, Ind.
Permit No. 1

LYTHRUM LINERS

Pot Them for Spring Sales;
Grow Them On for Late Summer Sales,
Available: April, May & June

- LYTHRUM. Rooted Cuttings. In following varieties at $6.00 per 100.
- Dropmore Purple. Spike of purple-blue small flowers. 3 ft.
- Morden Gleam. (New) Light red small flowers. 3 to 4 ft.
- Morden Pink. Many stems covered with small pink flowers. 4 ft.
- Prolific. Deep Persian-rose; broad strong growth. 3 ft.
- Robert. Carmine-rose closely placed flowers; dwarf, neat growth. 1½ ft.

Library, U. S. Dept. of Agriculture
Washington 25,
District of Columbia

HARDY PHLOX

HARDY PHLOX Liners. Winter propagated. Delivery May 1955

Fifty or more of a variety: $4.00 per 100. Early orders appreciated.

American Beauty. Rosy red to deep rose-pink; strong grower.

Border Queen. Watermelon-pink; large florets and heads.

Hauptman Koehl. Deep blood-red; large flowers; tall.

Leo Schlageter. Bright deep crimson; strong, tall grower.

Lillian. Light pink flushed lavender-rose in large panicles.

Mary Louise. Pure white; large panicles and florets.

Mount Hood. Pure white; tall strong stems with large flower heads.

Prime Minister. White with large crimson centered florets; sturdy.

Ruby Lee. Clear plum-purple; large florets, broad panicles.

Spitfire. Salmon-orange flowers with small crimson eye.

Introducing New Varieties Phlox for 1955. Liners: $10.00 per 100.

Elaine. Bright red with crimson centered large florets.

Esquire. Clear, deep rose-pink of outstanding attractiveness.

Orange Queen. Salmon-pink shaded orange; short to medium.

Lynette. A quite early flowering light salmon-pink; tall.

Phlox, one-year No. 1. Out of cold storage. $14.00 per 100

Leo Schlageter

Prime Minister

Spitfire

Phlox, one-year No. 2. Out of cold storage. $8.00 per 100

Pink Charm World Peace Ruby Lee Leo Schlageter

Mary Louise Mount Hood Spitfire Mia Ruys (white)

Note. The No. 2 Phlox are lighter grade plants which are suitable for potting for spring sales, or bedding.

PERENNIALS

GYPSOPHILA. Bristol Fairy. Own-root propagated. In large supply.

2¼ in. pots: $20.00 per 100; 300 & Up at $18.00 per 100

Rosy Veil. One-year field grown: $16.00 per 100.

PRIMULA. Polyanthus Veris Hybrids. Splendid mixture of colors.

Strong 1 yr. transplants ready for early flowering: $16.00 per 100.

IBERIS. Snowflake. An evergreen edging plant, 10 in. height & spread. 2¼ in. pots from cuttings: $12.50 per 100; field grown: $18.00 per 100.

TEUCRIUM. Chamaedrys. A neat, low bordering hedge for the garden. One-year field grown: $18.00 per 100.

Cunningham Gardens

INCORPORATED

WALDRON, INDIANA